LOCAL NOTES.

A Recap of History.

NOGALES March 27, 1886.

TRES ALAMOS LAND CLAIM.

The Speaker also laid before the House a letter from the acting Secretary of the Interior, inclosing a letter from the Commissioner of the Land Office relative to the private land claim "Tres Alamos," Arizona territory; which was referred to the committee on private land claims. Congressional Record, March 17, 1886.

The Tres Alamos grant was offered to me by one Sr. Crospe, of Guaymas, Sonora, in 1857, and a copy of the title papers submitted to the lawyers of the "company" in the States; and declined for the reasons that they considered it an inchoate title, imperfect for want of compliance with the terms on which it was made.

The above action will segregate it from the public domain.

The "amendment" published in your paper of February 27, will restore it to the public domain.

My interest in it is not equal to the two-cent stamp on the envelope containing this note. C. D. P.

A Card.

TOMBSTONE, March 29, 1886.

To Messrs. Frank S. Earle, W. B. Benson, D. A. Macneil, J. O. Dunbar and others:

GENTLEMEN:—I have your communication of yesterday, requesting a course of lectures to young men.

If in your estimation I can say anything to help or encourage the young men of Tombstone in their efforts to live and let live, I shall very willingly do so.

If the time and place you name agreeable to the hearers, will you kindly take measures to publish the same to those who may wish to attend, and make such other arrangements as your judgment dictates.

I will say further, that I will substitute these addresses for the ordinary service and sermon of the Episcopal church, be delivered at the church, or elsewhere as you may elect, beginning next Sunday night, April 4th, and continuing three or four Sundays, as the time and subject may permit.

Appreciating the courtesy of your request and assuring you of my hearty desire to add my mite to the general good, I am very truly yours,

THOS. W. HASKINS.

Wrestling Match.

"Great attraction" at the Skating Pavilion to-night. Schumaker and Milo will give another exhibition of feats of strength. They will also wrestle lock hold, which is Milo's favorite. The exercises of the evening will conclude with a genuine wrestling match between Abe Tribi and Peter Schumaker, "catch as catch can." Mr. Schumaker offers Tribi $50 if he can secure a fall from him in one-half hour. Business will commence at 9 o'clock sharp. Everybody invited. Good order will be maintained, as usual.

NOTES.

Fly took Geronimo. Tombstone is ahead, this time. Geronimo has a horrible countenance. Ex-Mayor Strauss, of Tucson, was present.

The story told by Na-dis-ough was true.

Photographer Fly is the hero of the hour.

The Apaches run over the rocks like goats.

The scouts all recognized Na-dis-ough's portrait.

Fly's views will be sent to Harper's Weekly.

Crook was dressed in overalls, canvas coat and hat.

Na-dis-ough should be pronounced "Na-dis-cah."

The hostiles are fine specimens of physical manhood.

Geronimo don't think much of Arizona newspaper men.

The officers smiled audibly, when Geronimo scored the newspapers.

They had regular videttes and sentinels, around the Apache camp.

Ka-te-nay, the Apache prisoner from Icatraz, wears soldiers clothes and won't let Indian grub any more.

If the chiefs are sent to heaven their families had better follow them, in accordance with their request.

Fly, Strauss and a man named Chase, who accompanied Fly from Tombstone, were the only civilians present.

Ka-te-nay described the glories of San Francisco to the hostiles. After he had told them about the "Black Crook," they were very much interested.

The Washing Problem Solved.

The chief argument used by the ladies against the removal of the Chinamen is the difficulty of getting washing done. The force of this argument has been removed by a modern invention—the "Little Joker" washing machine. This machine is light, simple, cheap and durable. A child, or a weakly woman, can work it. It saves more than two-thirds of the time and three-fourths of the labor. It washes clean and saves wear of clothes. Call and inspect it. Mrs. Grant, agent, American Lodging House, Toughnut street, next door to Court House, Tombstone.

New Laundry.

Cain and Lynch will open a new laundry Monday next, on Allen between Sixth and Seventh streets. Mr. Lynch is an old and experienced laundry man, having operated a steam laundry of his own in Modesto, California many years. Mr. Lynch will ship at once his entire apparatus from Modesto to this city and will soon have a steam laundry in successful operation in Tombstone, but in the mean time will commence operations on Monday and those who entrust their clothes to his care may rest assured that they will receive prompt and fair treatment.
